

Bill Brooks was always a bit of an outsider - he just didn't fit in, and now he thinks he knows why. He is a former British soldier and a musician, an ordinary man with no interest in ET or UFOs. But, aged 44 all hell broke loose when an amnesia firewall was breached, triggered by a memory download event revealing a lifetime of UFO/ET abductions and contact.

With a military ET element, including MKUltra type programming, the enigmatic and paranormal brings him into contact with infamous serial killers, Rosemary and Fred West. Bill's unique and compelling story has taken him to the brink of death several times, and is an expedition into high strangeness involving encounters with Nordics, reptilians, shadow entities, grey aliens, Freemasons and MIBs. Despite the high strangeness, Bill's astounding story is told with a raw humour, earthiness and honesty.

44 AN EX-SOLDIER'S TRUE STORY BILL BROOKS & JOANNA SUMMERSCALES

Press Release

This astonishing, must read first book from Joanna Summerscales, founder of The ET Newsroom - a UK Experiencer (ET/Contactee) support project, and Experiencer, Bill Brooks, an ex-soldier and musician whose story here related, is as mind-blowing as it is disquieting.

'44 - BASED ON AN EX-SOLDIER'S TRUE STORY OF LIFELONG ENCOUNTERS INVOLVING ALIEN ABDUCTION...' (Available from Amazon as book and Kindle)

Bill's account is all the more fascinating because he didn't believe in things extra-terrestrial, paranormal or UFO related, until age 44, when all hell broke loose! What broke loose in 1994, was a sudden 'download,' a torrent of memories and information, which, without warning unpacked into Bill's mind, in the early hours one morning, as he sat reflecting on the gig he'd just done.

The download - similar to what people might know as an NDE (near death experience) showed events to which he had, up until that time been completely unconscious of. It seems that from a small child Bill had been taken by ET all his life. Then there was his time in the army. The military had a hand in at least one incident involving a mass abduction event he was part of as a new soldier in 1968. As well as being subjected to an MKUltra-esque mind control experiment in Porton Down, UK, his German (nuclear) base, in Sennelager was shared he was told, with Area 51 personnel, but in '68 no one knew what that was or realised what it might mean.

I DID NOT TELL HALF OF WHAT I SAW. FOR I KNEW I WOULD NOT BE BELIEVED.

Marco Polo, on his death bed in 1324

This subject is for the majority of people and mainstream media, in the 'Outer Hebrides' of the mind, and frequently derided. For those whose lives are affected by these others with their stealth-like contact, and memory blocking techniques, it is a game changer like no other.

THE NORDIC CONTACT EVENT

In 1960, lying in a crop of corn, ten year old Bill observed two, 8 foot spheres spinning around one another above him. He stood up to find himself standing in a crop circle, as they disappeared. The only time we've come across someone actually being in a crop as it was made. A family of four Nordic-type people approach him, (2 adults, 2 children), inviting him for a ride in their craft, where he is shown the propulsion system, and how to levitate small spheres by the children with his mind.

THE ABINGDON ABDUCTION INCIDENT

After the download - the many memories that flooded Bill's mind, with the exception of this one, drained away, until he thought for a time, this was his only abduction. Prior to his being taken through the windscreen, by three greys, Bill witnessed a cow being Abducted. Bill 'lost' an entire day, and was returned without his wedding ring and silver St Christopher, with 'sunburn' on the 'wrong' side of his body for a UK driver.

Bill contacted Joanna, under The Ammach Project banner after a series of heart attacks and strokes he had during a week in 2012. After some unsuccessful attempts to find researchers to help him come to terms with his incredible story, he decided to try again to reach out to someone else to share his story with, knowing that he might die at any moment with his poor health, and this book is the result of that meeting and collaboration.

ARMY COLLUSION IN 'ALIEN' ABDUCTION

After a week or two of being with his new regiment, Bill, along with Joe were the last to sleep after an exercise. Their sleeping quarters was the top of a Saracen, and they had a great view. Bill noticed all his fellow soldiers suddenly moving as if in a trance en masse towards a light that had suddenly appeared.

He got down to see what was going on, and was met by a man in black – pointing a large version of a Beretta at his head, instructing him to go into the light...he remembered nothing more until he was 44 years old...even though his friend Joe realised what had happened...they were instructed by some military brass whilst on parade to never speak about the experience to anyone or each other. Bill didn't know to what he was referring, having had his mind wiped successfully.

PARANORMAL EXPERIENCE – INVOLVING A LINK TO THE NOTORIOUS SERIAL KILLERS, FRED AND ROSEMARY WEST

Bill stayed in Germany working for a while after demob trying to make an ill-fated, first marriage to a German girl work. He returned from an evening out in the early hours, and without a front door key, accessed his flat from a ground level window he left open for that purpose, which led into the cellar, and from there to the hallway and his flat.

As he descended through the window, he felt his legs being grabbed and pulled down into what he saw as no longer a floor but a black abyss. Further, the room appeared to change proportions and detail. There was a strange sound, as if a thousand whispering voices were vying for attention. Even his Special Forces training couldn't prepare Bill for this experience, reminding him of the wraiths that came streaming out of the Ark of the Covenant in the 1981 Indiana Jones film, Raiders of the Lost Ark. Terrified, Bill weighed up his options, and finally as the wraiths moved up his body, pulling at him, he made the short jump to the ground and ran to the door. The next day he ventured back to check out the room. It was back to its normal self...However, Bill was to recognise the transformed cellar of the night before, years later on TV when police showed the cellar where serial killers, Fred & Rosemary West killed and buried their victims.

FREEMASONS – MURDER AND WARNINGS

Bill's cousin called him urgently, telling him he'd joined the Freemasons through a newly discovered family link. But it seems, he'd said too much, and been told he'd be killed...he warned Bill to be careful, and asked him to check for injection marks under his finger and toe nails when he died of a 'heart attack' within the next month. Bill, was as yet, unaware of Freemasons, or ET and thought his cousin had a breakdown. Three weeks later his cousin was dead and Bill did not check for injection marks...sure he must have had a bad heart.

Years later, a Masonic friend would drive a round trip of 400 miles to tell him he had 'trouble coming' his way – he'd heard from the main London lodge, Bill's life would be made extremely difficult by Freemasons, it's clear they knew of Bill's alien encounters, like the army.

MEMORY

Bill's memory has been compromised to a great degree, which he believes is due to the many abduction events and mind control methods used by not only ET – but the military.

IMPLANTS

After the Abingdon incident, Bill expelled two implants. The bullet shaped one from his right nostril, and the second seemed to have come from the back of his throat, the images below gives a rough idea of them.

BIOGRAPHIES

Joanna Summerscales' interest is in the field of alien abduction, the impact it has on well-being and the long term implications for humanity. Her initial training was media; theatre and television, though she is also a therapist in quantum healing which encompasses regression. Joanna founded The A.M.M.A.C.H. Project, (Anomalous, Mind Management, Abductee, Contactee Helpline) early 2011, about which a documentary was made 2013. It is the UK's only official Experiencer resource, providing a free helpline number, though her work is international. She offers a non-judgemental, safe platform for Experiencers and has filmed testimonies for posterity, to promote investigation, study and analysis of the field. This is also to support and dispel the isolation and discrimination that many Experiencers feel. Joanna has hosted Experiencer conferences, workshops, and given presentations on the subject as well as having hosted the UK's only Experiencer-orientated radio show. She is working on developing theatre/television projects based on her work. The Ammach Project was closed in December 2015, but that legacy continues with her renewed and expanded work under the banner of The ET Newsroom.

Bill Brooks spent two thirds of his life believing there was no such thing as extra- terrestrials, aliens or UFOs. He spent six years in the army at a base shared by US personnel from Area 51, and did a brief tour in Northern Ireland. Thereafter, he made a living as a professional musician and singer. At age 44 Bill's world fell apart after the shattering revelation that he'd had a life time of alien abductions. These memories flooded back after a near death type memory download. These involved encounters with military men in black, the greys, reptilians, shadow beings and the Nordics. Over the following twenty plus years, Bill struggled with this shocking reality and the continued abductions which sent his life into a tail spin. And, against almost insurmountable odds he raised his son. Further ordeals involve persecution by certain Freemasons, and amongst other things, a strange, paranormal association with Fred and Rosemary West, the British serial killers. Bill's world view was changed forever, and so was he.

REVIEWS

'An amazingly brave account from a man clearly grappling with the harsh realities of his bizarre life. He has emerged with scars, but also an expanded concept of reality. This is an important document in trying to piece together the connections between ETs, the military, secret societies and the paranormal' Lewis Dylan

'An eye opening read, giving an insight into the drawn veil over the genuine ET subject, and the powers that be' involvement in keeping the veil drawn, ridiculing the truth tellers and keeping us in the dark, I for one was intrigued to read this very powerful book and highly recommend it.
